Important Privacy Notice

Read Before Completing the Application Form

We are asking that you provide the information on the Workforce Housing Initiative Program application form to determine if you are eligible to participate in the program.

Your name, address and the amount of assistance you receive are considered public data under the Minnesota Data Practices Act. Other information that you provide to the housing rehabilitation program about you and your household is considered private data.

We will use your private data only when it is required for administration and management of the program. Persons or agencies with whom this information may be shared include:

- Staff and other persons involved in program administration.
- Local loan committee members who approve applications.
- Auditors who perform required audits of this program.
- Authorized personnel from the Minnesota Dept. of Employment and Economic Development, the U. S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development, MHFA or other local, state and federal agencies providing funding assistance for your loan.
- Members of the local governing board for the purpose of addressing/resolving applicant complaints (as addressed in the project's policy and procedural manual).
- Those persons who you authorize to see it.
- Law enforcement personnel in the case of suspected fraud or other enforcement authorities as required.

We cannot release private data to anyone else or use the private data in any other way unless you give us permission by completing a consent form that we will provide. Please keep in mind, however, that data must be released if required by court order, and, in addition, your private data may be released if Congress or the Minnesota Legislature passes a new law that authorizes or requires such release of data.
